

3-25-16 Easter madness

Yes we are in the middle of March Madness for college basketball.

But there is another March Madness going on: This week is Holy Week in the Christian tradition. Today is Good Friday, the day Jesus was crucified. And Sunday is Easter, the great day of resurrection and celebration.

Yes, it seemed the world had gone mad when the government used its form of capital punishment to get rid of a popular teacher and preacher. Over the next several days, those followers of Jesus were in a state of numbness and fear.

But imagine how those same followers felt when they heard on Sunday that the tomb was empty, that the once dead Jesus was nowhere to be found, and he was loose in the world.

God is full of surprises!

Just a thought. Join us this Sunday at First Presbyterian Church in downtown Greensboro to celebrate Easter.
